THE Rev. DEWITT TALMAGE in his lecture at Nashville on Wednesday evening last, among other things, said: "This was the grandest country, the grandest age, the grandest period of the world's history. The South was better than ever before. Since his last visit the greatest improvement had been made in the South. The Chattahoochee would one day rival the Merrimae, and young men would live to see more spindles in the South than in New England."

In Pennsylvania it is proposed to forbid by statute the cremation of deceased persons-a step that may be regarded from several points of view and is illiberal or justified according to the motive that suggest the measure. If the proposition has its origin in religious opinions and relates to a supposed the body" it will get but little sympathy; but if it starts from considerations of the impediment that cremation will put in the way of detection of crime there is much to be said in its fa-

WE have had of late years many books written by kings and queens, princes and princesses, but now we have a new literary contributor by a royal hand that is creating a pleasant interest in Europe. "CARMEN SYL-VA," the Queen of Roumania, from to-night. her romantic summer home among the Carpathian mountains, sends to the world a beautifully printed volume of legendary stories entitled "From CARMEN SYLVA'S Realm," which are destined to win Her Majesty great popularity among the young German speaking folk of Europe.

In the way of definitions we find all the authorities lacking concerning the word "bouncer" for the explanation of "a bully" is hardly sufficient and "one who bounces" is not distinct enough. For Texas the main signification of the word now is that the person to whom it is applied is hired by an individual, company or corporation to forcibly eject undesirable persons from room that is preferable to their company. A bouncer is now something which, like a copy of the GAZETTE, no well-regulated establishment should be without. He saves the trouble of calling for the police and that of swearing when the police can not be found; he also saves bring in the word are just arriving from the track.
